

Yes. Franklin Fountain Pen.

One filling does for week's writing. Pen best quality gold, fountain fountain, and will last a lifetime. It is used by the most successful business men of the world. PRICE, EACH, $2.50.

In order to introduce this new pen and make it widely known without delay, the manufacturer has made us a special rate that we may use the pen as a premium.

Every Subscriber One Pen
until Jan. 1st, 1893. Every one sending us $2.50 may have the pen sent post paid from our office in Burlington.

After a ten days trial any one dissatisfied may return the pen and have back $1.50 in money or their subscription will be extended for a year and six months, as they may choose.

But no one will want to return the pen. It is first class in every respect. The pen will be sent filled, ready for use. A thin fluid ink should be used in it and it will work without a hitch.

Only one pen to each subscriber. If you have more you must get it through some neighbor, who is also a subscriber, or is ready to become one.

If you have ever used fountain pens you know that no guaranteed pen can be bought less than $2.50. This pen is guaranteed. If out of order it will be fixed free of charge. At the same price you also get the best weekly paper published in Vermont.

Those who have already renewed their subscription so that they stand paid up to Oct. 1st, 1893, can secure this pen on payment of $1.50.

Those who have paid for some months ahead of time the pen or $1.50, if they send enough more to extend their subscription to Oct. 1st, 1893.

FRANK FOUNTAIN ASSOCIATION.

Bates preached Sunday evening on a subject appropriate for Thanksgiving.—There will be a union Thanksgiving day service in the parlors of the Methodist church Thursday morning. Rev. E. B. Bates will preach.

Mrs. T. W. Whipple has visited her mother here. Charles Mahan's tenement house was burned Friday evening. It was occupied by Charles Mahan, whose loss is small. The house was partially insured.—The Ladies' auxiliary of the Congregational church will give a social Thursday evening.—Miss Lena Smith and Fanny Dickinson are attending a week's session of the Legislature.

Miss Kittie Ladd is visiting relatives in Brooklyn.

PROCTOR.
A new road is being built from Church street west of the depot. It is a street for the use of the depot. The road is being built by the Vermont Marble company's store, Thomas Kelley has charge of its construction.

PITTSFIELD.
The many friends of Mrs. H. Flanders regret that her recovery is very doubtful. The family have the sympathy of the entire community.—D. D. Burdett is fast recovering from his attack of typhoid fever. His daughter, Susie, is also improving, and the two boys have recovered. This sickness in the Burdett family is attributed to the wet weather.—Powers Bros. have several hundred tons of G. F. Hendee's sawdust, which they are going to load to Middlebury in the spring. G. F. Hendee is erecting some new outbuildings.—Mrs. Thomas H. Ayres (now Cora K. Smith, formerly of U. S. Army) has been dangerously sick with diphtheria at her home in Grand Forks, N. D.

RUTLAND COUNTY.
About 70 sheep have been killed by dogs at Grandison this fall.

The town of Chittenden has paid the last $1000 of its debt, amounting to $8900.

Moscow & Stoddard are equipping their works at Rutland with an electric light plant.

Henry Bushaw of West Charlotte has been a pension with arrears amounting to $1000.

James Flowers of West Rutland, who is 90 years old, has hauled 400 bushels of corn this fall.

The Alton Marble company of West Rutland is having electric lights placed in its quarry.

Rev. and Mrs. T. R. Butler of Rutland on Tuesday celebrated the 50th anniversary of their marriage.

The True Line Marble company of Rutland has adopted the monthly payroll system at its plant.

James McIntyre of Rutland, while driving over the River street bridge, fell out of the wagon and was killed.

Death of Captain Turner's hand was seriously injured while coming a stove with a pump that had become out of order.

J. B. Reynolds horse company of Rutland will hold their eighth annual auction and sale at the town hall December 9.

Paul Dicklow of Fair Haven was thrown from a wagon while driving wood. One of his horses was killed and he was otherwise severely injured.

Thomas MacLean, an employee at the Rutland Combination mill store, caught his foot between the floor and the elevator and it was badly crushed.

A valuable hog was stolen from M. L. Landon's dairy yard in Rutland, Tuesday evening, and no trace of the thief nor the hog has been found.

Among the much new machinery lately added to the Howe scale works at Rutland is a double-headed turning machine for turning both ends of truck axles at one time.

James Hilton, carpenter, fell from the second story of a house on which he was working at Centre Rutland upon several large pieces of timber, and received three broken ribs.

The diphtheria is raging with destructive force at Hampton, near Poultney. No church services were held last Sunday and the village is closely quarantined.

About 100 Old Folios from the Killingburg lodge of Rutland and lodges of towns near Rutland went to Troy Monday and Wednesday lodge members took part in a meeting of the Trojan lodge in the evening.

Charles H. Beal and A. H. Martin of Poultney street and killed four large cows on Tuesday night of last week, making 14 they have brought to grief in the past month. They report them very fat, which is not without a sign of a hard winter.

W. F. Jones, a carpenter, fell a distance of 20 feet from a building, from a scaffolding attached to a house on which he was working, upon a pile of stones. Three of his ribs were broken, and it was thought that he was injured internally.

David Peterson, a Norwegian, who has been a team at Centre Rutland for about two years, received a severe injury to his back on Wednesday last, when he fell from his team. He is now recovering, but he had failed to properly work his team. The news was sent him by a letter from the administrators of his uncle's estate.

BENSON.
John E. L. Harbour left Monday for a visit in Brooklyn, Toledo and Chicago.—Mrs. B. Fairman is teaching the school in the Goodrich district.—Charles King and Charles Mahan had chickens blown over by the wind Friday evening.—Rev. T. L.

der of Waterbury, D. F. secretary, Mrs. L. M. Nason of Barre, D. treasurer, Rev. C. E. Ladd of Plainfield, D. chaplain; George E. Ladd of Plainfield, D. M.; John Docherty of Barre, D. G.

E. H. Ladd has been appointed acting agent in the National Express office at Newport. E. H. Putnam of West Randolph fills the vacancy in the Montpelier office.

On Friday, C. A. Stone gathered straw, berries and dandelion blossoms and lively grasshoppers on his building lot.

James T. Sabie returned Saturday from the Adirondacks.

Mrs. Patrick Murray, aged 83, is very sick at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Solinas.

The topic club of Bethany church will meet Tuesday evening at the residence of H. W. Kemp.

Some repairs have been made about the power plant at the Brattleboro Electric light works.

Daniel P. Curtin will soon be one of the new proprietors of the Commercial House at Bellows Falls.

The Western Paper company has sold to the Connecticut River Railroad company a large block of land north of Saxtons River for about $20,000. It will be used for freight yards, and possibly shops will be erected there.

The People's bank of Brattleboro has received a couple of forged checks this week.

A 20 pound cannon, shot by George Hodgman in East Montpelier, is exhibited at the William Standish market.

The wife of James Brassaway, who resides in the little cottage lately partly burned, on Berlin side near the gas works, died Monday morning, leaving two little children, one less than two years old.

At the Friday night meeting of Gen. Stephen Thomas camp, Sons of Veterans, several applications for membership were received.

NORTH FAYSTON.
W. C. Porter is to move to his farm December 1.—Lillian Porter has gone to Northfield.—J. H. Johnson has taken E. A. Davis' farm.—George Grandfield and L. E. Marble's children are convalescent.—Horace Morse from Duxbury has bought the farm of B. Barrett.

ROXBURY.
Alice Smith of Barre, is visiting at H. G. Elm's.—Mr. Fall of Boston, is boarding at H. G. Elm's.—Miss Hayes, who has been quite ill, is among those who attended the democratic rally at Montpelier last Monday night, Mr. and Mrs. Herriek, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Spaulding and daughter, Mrs. Thompson, and many others.—Miss Jennie Kendall returned to Bethel, Friday.

Miss Averill, who is in Montpelier last Friday.—Mrs. Dean has gone to Brookfield, on a visit to her son.

WEST BERLIN.
L. W. Porter's goods for his new store are already arriving, and the store is crowding the completion of the building.

Truckers, Mrs. and Persons are having their tenements painted. D. Braman of Northfield does the work.—H. B. Ayers has commenced work on the cellar for a new store with a basement on the second floor.

Miss Grace E. Ladd closed a very early last term of school in district No. 1 last Friday, with an average daily attendance of fifteen out of only seven.

WAITSFIELD.
One of the most disastrous fires that ever occurred in town took place last Tuesday night in the burning of the new steam mill which was discovered to be on fire about 11:30 p. m. It had gained such headway that it was impossible to put it out, and everything was ruined, with the exception of the engine and boiler, which were somewhat damaged. It was insured for $25,000. The cause of the fire is yet unknown. When discovered the fire seemed to be started under the board saw machinery, which is not near the engine room. It is not yet decided whether the machinery will be rebuilt.

There were 70 cows taken from this valley last week to Framingham, Mass., prices ranging from $18 to $40 per head.

WATERBURY CENTRE.
Merton J. Davis, sent to Morrisville Wednesday, where he has obtained a situation with L. A. White, confectioner, as traveling salesman.—The fall term of the U. M. S. school next week with a prominent West Rutland connection.—R. K. E. Ladd, having completed her school in Barre, returned Friday for a three weeks' vacation. She is to teach the winter term in the same district.—W. M. Anderson has contracted for 500,000 feet of logs to be drawn to his mill this winter.

WATERBURY.
M. O. Evans sent five tons of poultry—mostly turkeys—to market last Friday.—The old Methodist church and the end of the lot next the railroad, where the new church stands, have been sold for $1000. This leaves the new church nearly out of debt.—Mrs. Annette Baker spent the past week with Mrs. C. E. Richardson.—Harold Sumnerville has had a severe attack of bronchitis.—Mrs. and Mrs. Joseph Darling, now living at Montpelier, are reported to be getting a girl.—Dr. J. T. Wheeler says that there is a boy—a democrat—but his wife claims that it is a republican.

Charles Shipman and wife of Montpelier were in town Sunday.—Quite a number of our people attended the democratic jubilee at Montpelier, Mass. Joseph Cannon, Rev. S. H. Wheeler and wife to go to Burlington to spend Thanksgiving with Mr. Wheeler's mother.

GOULDSVILLE.
Julia Bell has gone to Fennecook, N. H., to work in a factory.—Mrs. Cora Kennedy of Lebanon, N. H., has been visiting here with her daughter, Mrs. L. B. Verrington.—Sennels closed Friday for a two weeks' vacation.—Lester Verrington has moved into the tenement with John Deane.—The Rev. Charles H. Ladd has moved to Bethel and is boarding at George Cass's.

Francis Ford has moved into the tenement vacated by Chandler; and W. J. Leger from Barre into the one vacated by Ford.—A juvenile temple is soon to be organized here in connection with the Good Templars.—The young ladies of this place are rehearsing for a brown drill to take place in December.

SOUTH WOODBURY.
Minnie Wheeler is stopping in town.—Grant Templeton and wife are to occupy rooms in Mrs. Farnsworth's house the coming winter.—Glenn Hall is in town.

PLAINFIELD.
There was a hail at the Plainfield House on the evening of November 13.—A turkey weighing 32 pounds was exhibited by S. S. Smith last week.—Fred Clark is to have an auction Friday, November 25.

WORCESTER.
The infant son of Lawrence Bruce is very ill.—Frank Dunham of the U. V. M. was at home last week.—Luka Lawrence died Wednesday, November 18, after long illness. He leaves a wife and five children. The funeral was held Monday.

FAYSTON.
James Johnson and Albro Porter finished threshing last Friday. They have threshed about 8,000 bushels of grain this season.—The family and friends of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Betts gave them a pleasant surprise party Thursday evening. It was their 25th wedding anniversary.—Hugh Baird lost $300 worth of dressed clapboards at the steam mill of Trask & Eaton, which was burned in Waltham.

MORETOWN.
George Tayte has returned from Salem, Mass.—Grace Moulton has gone to Barre to work and Basile Bruce to Montpelier.—Will Sawyer has returned from New York State.—Mrs. H. O. Ward and son spent Sunday in Montpelier.

WINDHAM COUNTY.
The postoffice at Newfane and Williamsville have been made money-order offices.

L. H. Sullivan has an arm badly crushed while coupling cars Wednesday at Bellows Falls.

Some repairs have been made about the power plant at the Brattleboro Electric light works.

Daniel P. Curtin will soon be one of the new proprietors of the Commercial House at Bellows Falls.

The Western Paper company has sold to the Connecticut River Railroad company a large block of land north of Saxtons River for about $20,000. It will be used for freight yards, and possibly shops will be erected there.

The People's bank of Brattleboro has received a couple of forged checks this week.

A 20 pound cannon, shot by George Hodgman in East Montpelier, is exhibited at the William Standish market.

The wife of James Brassaway, who resides in the little cottage lately partly burned, on Berlin side near the gas works, died Monday morning, leaving two little children, one less than two years old.

At the Friday night meeting of Gen. Stephen Thomas camp, Sons of Veterans, several applications for membership were received.

WINDSOR COUNTY.
Work has been resumed on the shoe shops at Royalton.

Fowler & Adams are making many improvements about their sawmill at Ludlow. The new mill at Ludlow is progressing rapidly, machinery will be set up by January 1.

As George White was crossing a bridge in Chester with a load of logs and three horses the bridge broke and left the rear end of the load hanging. It came near being a serious accident.

The Springfield Congregational society have secured the service of Rev. Thomas Beckford of Bradford, Conn., as pastor for the ensuing year.

The new woolen mill at Ludlow is nearly completed, the machinery being rapidly placed in position. George Levy, a successful and practical manufacturer, will manage the entire plant. Building lots in the vicinity of the mill are being bought, on which tenement houses will be erected to rent.

STOCKBRIEGE.
Fred Newton commenced work in the Gayville button shop last Monday.—Charles Perry, the Rutland stage driver, has been sick for the past week at his boarding place.—William Martin is having two bay windows added to his house.—A C. Fickard's family was called to Northbury last Thursday to attend the funeral of their grandchild, Malcolm Johnson's baby.—James Rice, an old and respected citizen, died at the home of his daughter in Rochester, N. Y.—Lydia Lamb has gone to Massachusetts to work.—Mrs. Cora Luce is at work for J. D. Wilcox.

READ.
Dr. Morgan has moved into the house he recently purchased of Mrs. Harding, and has built a large addition to his barn.—Mr. and Mrs. Rogers have returned from Woodstock.—Mr. Oscar Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. Starnes of New York, visited his father, R. Starnes, recently.—Freddie Watkins is spending his vacation at Rutland.—Mrs. Scott of Woodstock, is visiting her brother and sister, Mr. Over and Mrs. Carpenter.—Mrs. Maloney has returned from London.—Mr. Dexter Brock has had a vacation since the 1st of November 15.—Mr. O. H. St